LEADERSHIP

TOM BENSON

In a career in business and professional sports that spanned over 70 years, Tom Benson was an endearing figure in his hometown of New Orleans as well as throughout the NBA and the NFL. Mr. Benson served as the owner of the New Orleans Pelicans since 2012 and the New Orleans Saints since 1985 until his death on March 15, 2018. He was survived by his wife Gayle.

In 2012 Mr. Benson purchased the Hornets franchise from the National Basketball Association, which was successfully rebranded as the Pelicans. The objectives in his ownership of the basketball team were the same as his stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community. Upon the ownership transfer, construction immediately started on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility adjacent to the Saints practice fields, which now comprises the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, with the entire Pelicans organization being housed together for the first time in the franchise's history. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone nearly a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD video scoreboard in 2015, along with several fan upgrades. On the court, after Mr. Benson inherited a team that finished with the worst record in the NBA's Western Conference in 2011-12, the Pelicans have built through a combination of the draft, free agent signings and trades to become a stable and successful organization, reaching the playoffs for the second time in 2018 since the purchase of the club.

BENSON MILESTONES

1985: Ownership of the Saints officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31 and he becomes managing general partner of the club.

1986: The Benson influence begins as the owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise, hiring Jim Finks as president/general manager and Jim Mora as head coach.

1987: The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record—including victories in the final nine contests—and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988: The Saints finish 10-6, posting a double-digit victory total again and achieving consecutive winning seasons for the first time.

1989: Mr. Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept for three separate stints, before most recently stepping down in 2013.

1990: After winning six of their last nine games, the Saints earn their second playoff appearance by finishing second in the NFC West.

1991: New Orleans clinched its first division championship with an 11-5 record and capture the NFC West.

1992: The Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Mr. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1993: The Saints finish second in the NFC West, with the club recording its seventh-straight non-losing season.

1996: Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility in Metairie.

2000: New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome.

2002: The city hosts its fourth Super Bowl during Mr. Benson's tenure as owner. Mr. Benson promotes Mickey Loomis to general manager of football operations.

2003: Mr. Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements are finished before training camp, as the club holds camp in Metairie for the first time in franchise history.

2005: After Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Gulf South on the verge of the NFL's opening weekend, Benson was forced to move the club's entire operation. Under his leadership, the Saints were able to continue the season, including holding four games in Baton Rouge. The club established the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, raising over $1 million.

2006: The team returns to Louisiana, with Mr. Benson positioning the club as an emblem of the state's resolve and determination in rebuilding. The Saints—selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time—win the NFC South title under the guidance of new head coach Sean Payton and the spark of free agent acquisition Drew Brees, finishing at 10-6. The victory total included a memorable, 23-3 win over Atlanta in the reopening of the Superdome. The team advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time in franchise history. Payton and Loomis were consensus choices for the NFL Coach of the Year and NFL Executive of the Year awards respectively.

2008: Mr. Benson purchases WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally owned. The Saints defeat the San Diego Chargers at London's Wembley Stadium, playing in their first regular season game outside the United States.

2009: In what Mr. Benson considers part of his legacy in Louisiana, the New Orleans native reaches an agreement with the state through 2025 that will create a new Sports Development District downtown, including a completely renovated Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Benson family purchased and redeveloped two properties—each adjacent to the Superdome—an economic windfall for the region without any new taxes. New Orleans is selected by the NFL to host Super Bowl XLVII, to be played on February 3, 2013, with Mr. Benson serving as the city's leading advocate in the campaign. It is the fifth time New Orleans will host the Super Bowl since he's owned the club. On the field, the Saints enjoy their most successful season in franchise history. New Orleans sets a club record for victories with a 13-3 regular season, capturing the NFC South title. The Saints then hosted the NFC Championship game for the first time and advance to their first Super Bowl with a 31-28

GAYLE BENSON

GOVERNOR

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints as Governor, succeeding her husband, Tom Benson, who passed away on March 15, 2018, after purchasing the Saints in 1985 and the Pelicans franchise in 2012. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community who is dedicated to contributing to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson worked together to build championship-level NBA and NFL organizations, housed in state-of-the-art facilities at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, Smoothie King Center and Caesars Superdome, while making a positive impact in the community away from the football field and basketball court as well.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together and the franchise would also be rebranded as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Through this commitment, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just seven current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times. Active in league affairs, Mrs. Benson, serves as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee and also was named the NBA Foundation Board of Directors in 2020.

On the court, she oversaw a significant overhaul of the Pelicans organization in 2019 when she hired Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations David Griffin and committed to significant upgrades to the Ochsner Sports Performance Center's basketball facilities. Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson, combined with the 2019 acquisition/2020 re-signing of forward Brandon Ingram, a 2020 NBA All-Star and winner of the league's Most Improved Player award, the relocation and rebranding of the Pelicans G-League affiliate, the Birmingham Squadron and the recent hiring of Head Coach Willie Green, the Pelicans have established a solid foundation for the future.

With the Saints franchise under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the team has reached new heights since 2006, when they entrusted Executive-Vice President/General Manger Mickey Loomis to set the direction for the organization, responding by making important coaching hires and continually supplementing and upgrading the roster through the draft, free agency and trades. Since then, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 168-106 record from 2006-21, featuring nine playoff berths, seven division titles, three NFC Championship appearances and the Super Bowl XLIV title. Off-the-field, the Caesars Superdome is in the midst of a multiple-phase enhancement, in addition to periodic renovations at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center to retain its status as one of the most cutting edge practice facilities in the NFL. The Caesars Superdome has been sold out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 and 145 consecutive sellouts through 2021. The NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 teams has resulted in the Saints being ranked with the highest overall score for Fan Gameday Satisfaction each of the past three seasons. The club has also positioned itself as a leader in the community, assisting with the recovery from several natural disasters as well as the COVID-19 pandemic, while also working to enhance the region as a whole.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Pelicans and Saints. This tradition continues under Mrs. Benson's stewardship, sharing her late husband's vision and passion for helping others. She has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support to causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors. As dedicated corporate citizens, the Pelicans and Saints annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide since becoming Owner.

Mrs. Benson has always responded to conditions that affect the local community adversely, becoming quickly involved and taking action. With the COVID-19 pandemic and Hurricane Ida providing multiple challenges to the New York area and its citizens since 2020, Mrs. Benson has donated over $2 million, partnering with the Greater New Orleans Foundation to assist local organizations and individuals in need to help the region and its residents recover from these circumstances. In 2020, utilizing the platform of the Saints and Pelicans to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across both the Gulf South and the country, she formed the Social Justice Leadership Alliance. The alliance, with key front office executives and players from both franchises in leadership positions, advocates for issues of change in minority communities.

Her responsibilities include drafting key documents – including leases, sponsorship agreements and broadcast contracts – identifying and analyzing legal issues and presenting comprehensive recommendations. In 2021, Neumeyer took on added duties as the team's Infection Control Officer, with the club's priority being to keep players, coaches, staff and fans safe through the COVID-19 pandemic.

MICHAEL STANFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. The long-time sports administrative executive is responsible for overseeing the entire consumer and corporate sales efforts for both the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, the two revenue-generating facets of both organizations.

Entering his 11th season with the Pelicans and 23rd with the Saints, Stanfield is responsible for both clubs' sales efforts – directing the sale of season tickets, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Smoothie King Center and Caesars Superdome luxury suites, managing food and beverage for both facilities, overseeing a vast merchandising business for both teams flanked by a Pelicans and Saints team store, as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket and merchandise sales totaling the second-largest growth in the NBA. In 2021, Stanfield oversaw a successful launch of ticket sales and corporate sponsorship for the Birmingham Squadron, the Pelicans' G League affiliate team based in Birmingham, Alabama.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed most of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 – a feat that has continued for 16-straight seasons. In addition the club has leased every Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Caesars Superdome. Stanfield's team sold out every Pelicans and Saints suite for the entirety of the 2021-22 NBA and NFL seasons. Stanfield and his team sold out every season ticket floor seat for the 2022-23 season, and have overseen the improvements of the Courtside Club and Chairman's Clubs, dedicated to premium season ticket holders.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history.

Stanfield has also helped administer an overhaul of the organization's direct-to-consumer strategy, focusing on implementing an innovative and forward-thinking approach in the ever-changing landscape of sales in the sports industry. The Saints have been ranked number one by the National Football League in Overall Gameday Satisfaction for the past two seasons in a survey conducted by the NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs in an eight-category review. The Pelicans continuously rank among the top of the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in league-commissioned surveys, due in large part to the group's emphasis on culture and team spirit. Stanfield's sales groups serve as a training ground for developing and producing successful salespeople throughout the world of sports.

At the same time as making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield has also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. In 2021, Stanfield and his staff finalized a ground-breaking 20-year naming rights deal for the Saints' iconic stadium with Caesars Entertainment.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports, serving as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A baseball team in 1988 and had attained impressive sales results in sports prior to joining the Saints in 2000. In 2007, Stanfield completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce and served as a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. Additionally, Stanfield is a member of the Jefferson Business Council and served on the transition team for the Mayor of the City of Kenner. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

Stanfield and his wife Stacey, have one daughter, Olivia.

LOGOS / MARKS

PARTIAL ICON

GLOBAL LOGO

Wordmark
Inspired by French Quarter street signs.

Fleur-De-Lis
A most notable symbol of New Orleans, the Fleur-de-lis is also represented within the primary and secondary marks. Its roots lie within its French origin and the deep cultural heritage of our city and is thus displayed on the city's flag. The mark, however, came to mean much more after Hurricane Katrina devastated the region, and came to symbolize the heart and resolve of the city.

Crescent Basketball
Coined the "Crescent City" in 1835, New Orleans derived its popular nickname as it was established along the semi-circle bend of the Mississippi River. The crescent shape is thereby represented in several of the marks.

SECONDARY LOGOS

"BIRD-DE-LIS"
Incorporates pelican, fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

CIRCULAR
Incorporates cultural reference to "Crescent City" more formally and includes fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

NOLA
Refers to New Orleans, LA and includes fleur-de-lis.

*for alternative flat applications use Pantone 465

Blue, gold and red are the colors represented in the flag of New Orleans.

Primary - Blue
Representative of the state flag of Louisiana. Traditionally represents liberty (as in the City of New Orleans flag).

Secondary - Gold
The raucous embellishment and flourish that represents the spirited life of New Orleans. It's a color indicative of the city itself. It ties together this organization (shared color with the Saints), the rich and diverse history of the city and its culture of celebration. It's the color often found in the "crown" of pelicans and represented the championships we intend to win.

Tertiary - Red
Red signifies fraternity, one blood or union, as with this team of players. It also represents the legend of the mother pelican pricking her own breast to feed her young in times of need, doing whatever it takes to endure. It's found on the throat of this powerful bird and provides a flash of intensity.

BIRMINGHAM SQUADRON

In 2017, The New Orleans Pelicans announced their intent to launch their own NBA G League team in a city near New Orleans to give the team the opportunity to develop its players closer to home. After conducting extensive research into markets across the Gulf South, Birmingham, Alabama emerged as the front runner. On October 24, 2018, the Pelicans, in conjunction with the NBA G League, formally announced that the Pelicans had purchased an NBA G League franchise to play at Legacy Arena in Birmingham at the conclusion of a $123 million renovation of the facility.

On Dec. 5, 2021, the Birmingham Squadron christened the newly-renovated arena against the Mexico City Capitanes and the team picked up its first home victory on Dec. 6, 2021, defeating the Capitanes 109-107. The team made a playoff appearance in its first season, falling to the Texas Legends in the first round, 115-100.

In an effort to accelerate player development, as well as establish a presence in the NBA G League, the Pelicans' G League affiliate played temporarily in Erie, Pennsylvania for three seasons (2018-21) as the Erie Bayhawks. With Legacy Arena renovations scheduled to finish earlier than expected, the Birmingham Squadron was officially announced on July 26, 2021 as the Pelicans one-on-one NBA G League affiliate, set to begin play in November 2021.

"Bringing our G League team closer to home and to such a deserving city like Birmingham was of the utmost importance in deciding where to launch our new G League franchise," said Pelicans Governor Gayle Benson. "Our organization's vision is to grow the game of basketball in the Gulf South and we couldn't be more excited to bring the NBA to the amazing people of Birmingham. We look forward to being a part of the community for many years to come."

After careful deliberation, the name Squadron – synonymous with a flock of Pelicans – was chosen as a nod to the parent club. Also, the word Squadron is defined as a group that works together with a shared mission, representing the franchise's mission to develop NBA talent and bring championships to both Birmingham and New Orleans.

The Birmingham Squadron serve as a development ground for NBA talent as the Pelicans one-on-one affiliate in the NBA G League. Led by David Griffin, Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations, and General Manager Trajan Langdon, the Pelicans have full control of the Squadron roster and have the ability to move players between Pelicans and Squadron rosters when needed.

The 2022-23 edition of the team is led by head coach T.J. Saint, who has served as an assistant coach and associate head coach for the Pelicans' G League affiliate teams since 2019. The Belmont graduate worked as the director of basketball strategy for the University of Georgia during the 2018-19 season. Prior to that, Saint was a member of the Detroit Pistons organization as the video coordinator from 2014-18. After graduating from Belmont, he served as a graduate assistant, and later director of basketball operations, for the Butler University men's basketball program from 2011-14.

LEGACY ARENA

Legacy Arena at the BJCC serves as the permanent home of the Birmingham Squadron as the team enters its second season in the Magic City. Originally constructed in 1976, the arena underwent a $123 million renovation in 2021 and now seats 17,654 for sporting events and 19,000 for concerts.

The renovations included massive updates to both the interior and exterior of the arena, most noticeably a new atrium at the 19th Street entrance featuring a beautiful steel-and-glass façade. On the interior, the renovation created new premium seating options, improved concourses and luxury suites.

"Legacy Arena gives us the opportunity to entertain our fans in one of, if not the best, arenas in the NBA G League," said Squadron general manager Leslie Claybrook. "We could not ask for a better place for our players to showcase their skills and for our fans to cheer them on. With its renovations, Legacy Arena is now a premier destination for sports in the Southeast."

Legacy Arena is the largest multipurpose arena in the state of Alabama and has hosted a wide variety of events in its past, from sporting events like NCAA March Madness to legendary concerts by artists like Michael Jackson. From a basketball standpoint, the arena has hosted four SEC basketball tournaments, three Conference USA tournaments, and 10 NCAA Tournaments on both the men's and women's sides.

The arena is the third-largest in the G League and the largest of teams located in the United States that do not play in a full-time NBA arena.

Legacy Arena hosts 24 Birmingham Squadron games this season beginning with the season-opener on Nov. 6 against the Lakeland Magic.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

The New Orleans Pelicans community efforts focus on two key initiatives critical to the future success and prosperity of the Gulf South region: the health and sustainability of our coastal wetlands and the health and fitness of our region's children.

In conjunction with our community and corporate partners, the Pelicans continue to execute several outreach programs that positively impact and inspire the lives of individuals in our community.

The health of the coastal wetlands is vital to growth and success of the state and region. The Louisiana wetlands provide 30% of the seafood catch in the contiguous U.S. Our wetlands habitat is also home to a wide variety and number of wildlife and plants.

New Orleans Pelicans Junior Training Camps are presented by our partners, Smoothie King and Ochsner, serve as our longest tenured youth basketball program sponsor. JTCs run throughout the year and focus on the development of the youth athlete through a variety of fundamental drills that help them learn the game of basketball. Through this program, we also promote sportsmanship, encouragement, and the importance of living a healthy and active lifestyle to schools and summer camps in our surrounding communities.

On July 14, 2022 – The National Basketball Association (NBA) and Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) announced the launch of Jr. NBA Leagues, a national network of youth basketball leagues for boys and girls ages 6-14. The New Orleans Pelicans were one of five NBA teams selected to become a pilot market for this program. Launching in November of 2022 in a variety of parishes throughout Louisiana, our Jr. Pelicans Leagues provide access to best-in-class recreational basketball to youth across socio-economic, racial and gender lines. Joining our Jr. Pelicans Leagues as a player, coach, or operator provides access to a variety of resources and benefits that will greatly enhance the youth league experience. Our youth league participants will compete in official Pelicans team-branded uniforms. RCX Sports, a Jr. NBA partner since 2018 and market leader in youth sports experiences, will serve as the program's official operating partner. All Jr. Pelicans Leagues members – will also receive a robust suite of resources including training opportunities and basketball curricula designed to enhance league effectiveness, gameplay, and on-court and off-court player and coach development.
